

CBL Seals Project, Publicity Report

The launch of the database has been advertised digitally through/in:

H-Islamart
H-Mideast-Medieval
EURAMES@geo.uni-mainz.de
Aga Khan Foundation newsletter
TIMA e-mail newsletter
Historians of Islamic Art newsletter
The Islamic Art Circle
CBL website

TIMA's generous support of the project was acknowledged in the announcement sent to these organizations.

Following the announcement of the launch, congratulations on, and endorsements of, the database were received from several prominent individuals in the field of Islamic manuscripts, including:

Congratulations (and many thanks) for setting up this database! It is a brilliant idea. I hope the response will be really great.

All good wishes,
Emilie Savage-Smith, FBA
Emeritus Professor of the History of Islamic Science
The Oriental Institute, University of Oxford
Senior Research Consultant, Bodleian Library

and

I have seen the message about the seals data-base.
Felicitations for this excellent idea and initiative. It was always one of my dreams to see such a realisation!!!
Bravo.

With my best wishes.

Yours sincerely,
Francis Richard
Director
French Institute, Tashkent